By the top sire Curlin, who is the same sire as G1 winner Malathaat, this years leading 3 year old filly. He is also the sire of other top fillies like Stellar Wind and Curalina. This filly is out of Laskarina, who is a full sister to the very talented Bakken, who was a G2 placed sprinter. She is also a 1/2 sister to Justwhistledixie who is the sire of BC winner and stallion New Year's Day, and Mohaymen who was a multiple Graded Stakes winner, who ran 4th in the KY Derby. This is one of the hottest current pedigrees in the stud book. This is a Classic pedigree, and our filly has the physical that makes you think some of the top 3 yo filly races.

We own 25% of this filly with Joey Platts.

This filly has settled in at the Sequel Bloodstock farm in Ocala. She has already been broken, and is enjoying some turn out time before they pick it back up with her after Thanksgiving.

Practical Joke is one of the best freshman sires in North America right now. He had a great sales season, and has backed it up with arguably the best 2yo in America in Wit. He is a G2 winner, who was an unlucky 2nd in the G1 Hopeful after a poor break. Practical Joke was a very talented racehorse, and he is by the #1 sire in North America in Into Mischief.

Our filly is out of Royale Michele, who was a G2 winner of over $230,000.

We own 100% of this filly.

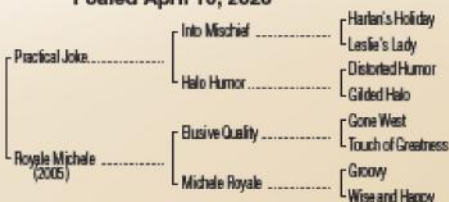

She arrived at Centofanti Thoroughbreds on Friday, November 5th. Raffeale Centofanti is the main trainer here. He has broken a lot of horses for some of our Taylor Made Customers, including Bloodstock Investments, and they have given him rave reviews. Raffeale is in Kentucky for the November sale, and said the filly is just taking it easy, adjusting to the new surroundings.

KITTEN'S JOY-SUMMER VACATION F

| | |
|-----------|--------|
| PRICE | We own |
| $100,000 | 100% |

This gray filly is by the top international sire Kitten's Joy. Kitten's Joy is the #1 turf sire in North America for 8 consecutive seasons, and has produced multiple champions including Kameko, Stephanie's Kitten, and another gray, Roaring Lion, who was raised at Taylor Made. While predominantly a turf sire, he can get a G1 dirt horse, like Tripoli, who won this year's G1 Pacific Classic at Del Mar.

This filly comes from one of the best families in recent memory. Her second dam is the G1 winning millionaire Dream of Summer. Dream of Summer in turn produced G1 winners Creative Cause and Vexatious. She is also the dam of Destin, who was beaten a nose in the G1 Belmont. Hip 539's mother, Summer Vacation, is by the son of Giant's Causeway, Eskendereya. This has resulted in the same cross as globetrotting G1 winner Hawkbill. Summer Vacation is already the dam of Ten for Ten, who was a multiple G2 placed 2 year old. This filly has a pedigree and physical to excel on either surface.

We own 100% of this filly.

She went to Nick Esler's Sandhurst Thoroughbreds. This is the same place that the Mehmas/Greta d'Argent '19 was broken. Nick said her along with Justify/Damson '21 both shipped in great, and are working through the early stages of the breaking process.

HIP #673 (F) Justify - Damson (IRE)

PRICE
$150,000

We OWN 100%

By Triple Crown winner Justify, whose oldest crop are yearlings of 2021. Justify was an undefeated son of top sire Scat Daddy, who was a great sire of both dirt and turf runners.

Our filly is out of Damson, herself a G1 winner of the Phoenix stakes vs the boys as a 2 year old. She produced the G2 winner and sire, Requinto. This is a very strong producing family.

We own 100% of this filly.

She went to Nick Esler's Sandhurst Thoroughbreds. This is the same place that the Mehmas/Greta d'Argent '19 was broken. Nick only breaks racehorses, and does not do any of the two year old sales. We think this allows a little more focus and individual attention on each horse.
